The following table summarizes the different types of cookies that may be used on the site mblo.it, together with their respective function and durability (or for how long each cookie will remain on your device)

What are cookies?

Cookies are computer files or partial data that can be stored on your computer (or other enabled devices to surf the Internet, for example, smartphone or tablet) when you visit a site.

Usually a cookie contains the name of the website from which the cookie comes from, the "life span" of the cookie (ie how long will stay on your device), and a value, which is usually a unique number generated randomly .

For what we use cookies?

We use cookies to make using our sites easier and to better adapt them to your interests and needs.

Cookies can also be used to help speed up your future experiences and activities on our sites.

We also use cookies to compile anonymous aggregate statistics that allow us to understand how visitors use the site and to help us improve the structure and content of our pages.

We can not identify you personally through this information.

What types of cookies are used on the site mblo.it?

Two types of cookies may be used on our Sites: 'session cookies' and 'persistent cookies'.

The 'session cookies' are temporary cookies that remain on your device until the moment you leave the site.

A 'persistent cookie' stays on your device for much longer or until you delete it manually (how long the cookie will remain on your device will depend on the 'life span' of the cookie in question
